FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WORLDQUEST RESORT PREMIERES IN ORLANDO

Remington to Manage New Condominium Resort Near Walt Disney World

DALLAS and ORLANDO (August 28, 2006) – WorldQuest Resort (www.worldquestorlando.com) has officially opened in Orlando, setting the stage for carefree accommodations in America's leading vacation destination. Managed by Remington, the 612-unit resort-style hotel condominium at 8849 World Quest Boulevard near Walt Disney World, opens its first phase, which includes 102 hotel condominium units.

WorldQuest Resort invites guests and owners to “discover more” with a variety of water-features and a 10,000 square-foot, free-form pool; poolside food and beverage service; a gated clubhouse with welcome center, and premium fitness facility. The Mediterranean-style property will provide home-style comforts to vacationers with a selection of two- and three-bedroom, two-bathroom units averaging 1,400 square feet. Homes feature fine stone finishes, granite kitchens, premium bathrooms and interiors, as well as ensuite washer/dryers.

“We aim to offer a world of relaxation and recreation, amid Orlando's diverse attractions, theme parks and entertainment options,” remarked Duane Dickson, general manager of WorldQuest Resort. “As WorldQuest Resort guests and owners experience our outstanding service and facilities, we expect to establish a favored Orlando tradition.”

“WorldQuest Resort represents an exceptional condominium resort, and our first managed condo hotel,” remarked Mark Sharkey, Chief Operating Officer of Remington. “The destination continues to expand its selection of accommodations, recreation and attractions, and WorldQuest will provide an ideal retreat owners and guests will want to enjoy for years to come. We will leverage our experience and expertise to make WorldQuest Resort a top choice in the Orlando area.”

With a proven track record of matching owners' expectations with those of the market, Remington designs and develops the features, services and amenities that best position resorts within their respective markets.

WorldQuest Resort Partners LLC is a joint venture of Jordan Adventures, a leading central Florida real estate developer, and condo industry veteran Tom Bennett. World Quest Resort is one of the first developments in Orlando to offer the condo hotel experience to buyers and visitors alike. For more information on WorldQuest Resort visit www.worldquestorlando.com or call (407) 699-1118.
